Books' Use Increasing

Cameron Library book usage is higher than a year ago, a survey of library records showed this week

Mrs. W. O. Triggs, chairman of the Cameron Library book selection committee said that a peak of 400 books a month is used during the year.

Her report came at a meeting of the Cameron Library Board Tuesday.

VOLUMNS ADDED

Mrs. Triggs told Library Board members that more than 100 volumes have been added to the library in the past year and that total volumes exceed 3,000. Earlier this year the number was reported at about 2,800.

A month - by - month survey showed peak readership among students in the summer months.

Book checkout records showed: January, 133 books checked out; February, 145; March, 150; April 146; May, 173; June, 409; July, 279; August, 260 and September, 57.

There was a correlation between summer vacation months and increased library use, officials said.

Out of every 100 books added to the Cameron Library, now planning a building drive, 60 are purchased and 40 are donated.

DONATIONS NOTED

A number of donations have been given the library during the past few months in honor of deceased relatives and friends of donors.

Children's books form the highest percentage of library readership throughout the year, the survey showed.

Board members discussed boosting the use of the Cameron Library among adults and considered plans for a number of improvements to be announced.

National Newspaper Week is an annual observance for newspapers to get out the bugle (not necessarily the name of the paper) and blow some strains on the value of a free press.

The San Antonio Express had an editorial this week on 200 years of press freedom, citing the classic Peter Zenger case that was the test and the start of press freedom in the Colonies, later the United States.

It was 1735 and John Peter Zenger, a printer, was being sued for libel by the New York governor's defeated candidate for High Sheriff. The New York governor was appointed by the King of England.

Zenger was sued for poking fun at the High Sheriff, who he charged with excluding some Quakers from election in which the Governor's candidate was defeated by a Lewis Morris, muc hin disfavor with the crown.

A Philadelphia lawyer, Andrew Hamilton, came to town to defend Zenger, who was in jail and without representation.

Hamilton told the jury:

"The question before the court and you gentlemen of the jury is not of small nor private concern; it is not the cause of the poor printer, nor of New York, alone. No! It may, in cosequence, affect every freeman that lives under a British government on the main of America. It is the best cause. It is the cause of liberty the liberty both of exposing and opposing arbitrary power by speaking and writing the truth."

That was basis for freeing Zenger and for establishing Constitutional press freedoms. It is another reminder of the press' heritage.

Advance Party On Way To Ft. Polk

Now on active duty, Milam's Company C was awaiting final orders to move out of the Cameron Guard Armory sometime next week

An advance party was on its way to Fort Polk, La., this week to clear the way for the main unit due later.

For most of the Milam Guard unit, it will be the first extended tour of duty.

Capt. James T. Terry said that a majority of the unit has been in the Guard for a number of years, but has not been on active duty.

GUARD COMMITTMENTS

A number of unit members are serving tours to complete military obligations which started with a six - months tour of active duty training.

Military training this week has followed a classroom schedule centering on military countesy and basic soldiering.

The unit's four tanks were loaded on flatcars Sunday for transportation to Fort Polk. Additional tanks and personnel will be added at the Fort to fill out the ranks of units of the 3rd Tank Battalion and other segments of the 49th Armored Division.

Paperwork continued in preparation for the move to Fort Polk. Allotments, equipment check sheets and numerous forms required for an active duty unit were being completed prior to the move.

Rogers, Holland Annex Val Verde School District

The former Val Verde school district, formerly in the Sharp District, has been annexed to the Rogers and Holland School Districts by the Milam County Board of Education, following presentation of petitions from Val Verde residents.

Study To Show Profile, Grades

The City Council Tuesday approved Mayor Coleman Duncum's recommendation that the city plan to run grades and profiles on Sixth, Seventh and Eighth Streets between North Fannin and North Jackson.

Council approval followed a report from Public Works Supt. J. B. Earle on street and drainage projects completed during the past two weeks.

Mayor Duncum said that Earle was authorized to determine correct grades and profiles for the three streets, about 21 blocks, during the winter.

COSTS PREDERTIMED

He said that from these figures, the exact cost per lot could be determined and property owners and the City would know the cost per lot front for curbing, gutter and paving.

He emphasized that every effort would be made to tie in street widths, particularly along E. Seventh St., with good existing curbing. He expected that basework on the three streets, a part of the city's one - third contribution, would be expensive, but necessary for adequate, level paving.

Once the profiles and cost estimates are established next spring, he said, the projects would be presented residents along the streets and those organizing first for paving would get first consideration for the work.

Sixth Street had been included in an overall street improvement recommendation by a City Planning Commission three years ago, but some residents along the street did not wish to participate in the city - property owners program at that time.

PROGRESS REPORT

Earle's report on street improvement and repair was impressive. He reported:

--Completion of paving on E. Third St., near First Methodist Church.

--Work on shoulders along Fifth Street.

--Gravelling Vogelsang Street from Fourth to Sixth Streets.

--Assisting County workmen with a double penetration on the County Road going west by 77 Drive-In to the City Dump.

--Correcting drainage along the Santa Fe Railroad at E. Fourth St.

--Completion of trash pickup following Hurricane Carl and beginning fall cemetery cleanup.

--Putting down Alcoa slag and stone topping on Houston Street in the downtown area.

And he reported plans to put up additional street signs, grading, drainage and patching work.

He pointed out that he had put down 12 tons of patching Monday and Tuesday.

ESTIMATE ON DAM

In other action, the Council heard an estimate on the cost of repairing the City's Little River dam. Engineer - Contractor Frank Perrin said he estimated the cost at $12,500 for adequate repairs to the 50 -- foot wide dam.

His estimate included $5,000 for equipment rental at 75 per cent of normal rate and for labor. The other $7,500 would be for materials to strengthen the dam.

He said the City would buy the materials -- to include interlocking sheet piling and rock ballast -- for the project.

His estimate for cost included building two diversionery dams to bypass the repair area. He said erosion appears to have gone no higher than 6 feet on the dam, a 60 - year - old structure.

Money used in the project would be bond funds voted in 1956 for water filtration plant construction, Mayor Duncum noted.

The dam is leaking at the east side. The interlocking sheet piling would be used to reinforce the structure, Perrin said.

The Council accepted his report and called for City Atty. Charles Smith, Jr., to see what legal requirements are for building the dam and retaining a firm to do the work.

MAIL REGULATIONS

The City also approved mailing out cards to all water and garbage service customers, advising them of new requirements that would enable the city to keep trash and garbage service at present costs.

Alvin Hefft, city water superintendent, reported that construction of a city lift station was underway on North Karnes. He said pumps were in, but that some pipe was still needed before the station would go into operation.

Completion of the project would mean additional sewage service to residents in the northwest part of the city.

And Hefft reported about a half dozen water and sewer tap connections.

In other action, the City purchased a level for $150 from Earle for city use.

Mayor Proclaims Oct. 25 UN Day

Mayor Coleman Duncum calls the attention of Cameron citizens to United Nations Day to be observed November 25.

In proclaiming United Nations Day in Cameron, Mayor Duncum reminded citizens that never have the United Nations and the international community faced such a variety of difficult problems: revolution at a dozen points; the new urgency of definition of what international responsibility is for countries; the baffling question of where to get the money to meet crises where the United Nations must serve as the agent for the world community in preserving amximum order in difficult situations; and the ever - present threat of small wars erupting into world holocausts.

He added that this perpetual world emergency will call for citizens of the United States to carry more individual responsibility for the support of the United Nations than ever before.

City Will Mail New Trash Code

The City will mail out with November 1 water and garbage service bills a six - point policy on trash pickup adopted by the City Council earlier this month.

Councilmen Tuesday voted that all customers on city water and garbage pickup service would receive the following list of requirements to sustain the trash pickup operation:

1. All wet garbage must be in a metal container with a lid.

2. Two general clean up weeks will be held each year, one in the spring, one in the fall.

3. The City will cover the entire town every month, dividing the town into two sections with the flatbed truck to pick up extra trash shrubery and tree limbs. The schedule will be: From the 1st through the 7th of each month, north of SH 36, or Fourth Street; from the 8th through the 15 of each month, south of SH 36, on Fourth Street. The individual customer is limited to one load. No special calls will be made between the regular runs indicated unless the customer is willing to pay $3 for an extra pickup.

4. Limbs are to be cut in not over four - foot lengths before hauling. Leaves and small trash must be in some kind of container. The City will not cut trees or limbs except when in the City right - of - way.

5. For economy measures, the City must have full co - operation of the citizens.

6. Several commercial haulers are available in Cameron for cutting and hauling trees, shrubbery and other debris.

The statement is signed the Sanitation Department of the City of Cameron.

Decries Public Apathy

DA Lists Case Record

Dist. - Atty. Jack Prescott said Wednesday the greatest obstacle to good law enforcement is public apathy.

In a brief, to - the - point speech before Cameron Rotarians, Prescott emphasized the importance of public awareness of the need for enforcement of the law.

He blamed public acceptance of crime as the basis for the increase of law violations since World War II.

JURORS LAUDED

He lauded people in the Milam area, however, for their increased interested in law enforcement.

He asked for the continued support of citizens who serve on grand juries and trial juries.

In office since January 1, Prescott noted the number of cases processed in Milam District and County Courts since the first of the year

District Court: 27 felony cases, 2 cases dismissed for insufficient evidence.

County Court: 62 cases of misdemeanor or the most serious cases in County Court jurisdiction and about 10 dismissals for insufficient evidence.

Seven Justice Courts: An average of 100 cases processed during a month.

LAW CLIMATE BETTER

"I think the climate for law enforcement is much improved over the past few years," Prescott told Rotarians. "Until the public is aroused in the fight against crime, there will be no decrease."

He pointed out that the Sheriff's department processes 750 individuals a year through the County Jail. And he pointed out there are more white than Negro prisoners and fewer Latin - Americans than either of the other two groups.

First District Tilt Friday For Yoemen Fans

Billy Bates and his crew of Fighting and yet stumbling Yoemen, will be looking for their first district win tomorrow night when they play host to the Caldwell Hornets at Yoe High School Athletic Field.

The Caldwell starting backfield averages 160 pounds. The Hornest have three caperable passers in the backfield. Quarterback, Harold Satterwhite, 160 pound speed merchant, tosses a wiched short pass. 'THINKING CAN RUIN YOUR GOLF'
BY WILLIAMS
Skeletons and golf may seem strange bedfellows, but not to PHIL GALVANO. Year-round, he teaches golf indoors in an office building in New York City. Using charts of arterial and nervous systems, GALVANO virtually gives a course in anatomy to his students, who thus learn the art of being "skeletally correct" when striking the ball.
GALVANO'S methods are considered unique because they derive from not only skeleton-viewing, but from yoga, dancing and Zen.
"Thinking can ruin your golf," claims GALVANO, a member of the Professional Golfers Assn. "To be skilful you must perform without thinking."
1. Be sure the mind has a complete understanding of what is to be done.
2. Train eyes, muscles and nerves through constant repetition to consciously perform the desired functions.
3. Aim to make golf as much of an unconscious habit as walking.
GALVANO'S pupils include business executives, TV and stage performers and producers. As they've begun to stop thinking and perform subconsciously, their scores have gone down and no longer do they skeptically look at the skeletons and say: "We don't have a ghost of a chance."

Football Play Described By Yoe Teamate

"Football isn't everything, but it sure makes you feel good to play a good, rough and tough game," remarked Stanley Kirk, YHS gridironer following workouts last Thursday afternoon.

Kirk should know. He has been wearing a Yoemen uniform the past four years, two of them as an A team regular. This year as a 177 pound senior he is one reason for the Yoemen's successful season.

Originally a guard, he was switched to the center spot this year by head mentor, Billy Bates, to make full use of his husky build and "get tough" attitude. Kirk stands 5'9". He attributes about fifteen of his 177 pounds to the weightlifting course installed at Yoe High last fall.

He is one of the roughest boys to don a Yoe uniform in recent years and is fast on his feet. He has received numerous fractures since playing high school football, but so far only one broken bone. That was in his nose. He received a knee injury last spring when he and Bobby Hillman tripped headlong over a concrete roller while in hot pursuit of a pass.

"Doodle-Bug" as he's called by his classmates, has lettered two years as a Yoemen catcher on the baseball squad. He threw the shotput last year as a part of the track meet activities.

An outstanding personality makes him about the most popular boy in his senior class. His other interests include horses, swimming and livestock. He has a sister Wanda Kirk and two brothers, J. L., a 1955 Yoe graduate and Kenneth Paul, a Ben Milam Student.

Stanley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Buck Kirk, 308 North Karnes.

As for future plans, Stanley is undecided. He is seriously considering joining the army after graduation but a lot of football fans will vouch for him as making someone a good college football player.

George Washington, Sam Houston, Names on Immortal Roster

Early Leaders Set Citizen-Soldier Standards for Duty in Peace or War

George Washington, at the age of 22, commanded a Virginia Militia regiment in the French and Indian Wars. Even as a young man, Washington believed in a principle which he later in life expressed in these words: "Every citizen who enjoys the protection of a free government owes not only a portion of his property but even of his personal services to the defense of it." Today, George Washington's Birthday is also widely observed as "National Guard Muster Day." On "Muster Day" the National Guard salutes the memory of the First President militiaman in the "civilian-soldier" tradition.

Sam Houston is remembered chiefly as the architect of Texas Independence. Less known is that following War of 1812 service under General Andrew Jackson he became the Adjutant General of Tennessee. He was Tennessee's No. 1 soldier from 1818 until 1823 when he entered the United States Congress.

In the Mexican War a cry rang out above the din of battle on a fateful day at Buena Vista, "Stand Fast, Mississippians!" This was the beginning of the legend of the famed Mississippi Rifles whose commander was — Colonel Jeff Davis.

Pitted against each other under the grim sky at Antietam on September 17, 1862, were the 69th New York and the 4th Alabama. It was a fitting symbol of the Nation re-united when these two regiments, redesignated the 165th Infantry (New York) and 167th Infantry (Alabama) fought shoulder-to-shoulder in France during World War I, with the famed 42nd Rainbow Division. "We are young men of promising pasts, but durned uncertain futures," a young soldier wrote in Ohio Rainbow Review. By the time the Armistice brought WWI to a close the Rainbow Division was among those rated as toughest by the German High Command. Six of the eight "toughest" were National Guard divisions.

The 1940-41 mobilization of the Guard immediately doubled the size of the Army. Nearly 80,000 Guardsmen were commissioned officers by the time they left active service. Twenty WWII Guardsmen earned the nation's highest award for valor, the Medal of Honor.

The first Guardsmen to see action in World War II were tankers and coast artillerymen who fought valiantly in the fall of the Philippines. Artillerymen from Texas were diverted to the Dutch East Indies where many volunteered for duty as B-17 gunners in the early, grim days of "too little, too late."

Nine National Guard Divisions saw service in the Pacific and nine went to the ETO. The only U. S. WWII division with a name instead of a number was the "Americal" (for Americans in New Caledonia). The hard core of this division, which saved Henderson Field on Guadalcanal, were National Guard regiments from North Dakota, Massachusetts, and Illinois.

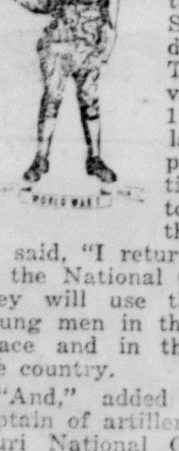
In looking back at 34 campaigns, seven assault landings in WWII, Secretary of War Robert P. Patterson remarked, "The soldiers of the National Guard fought in every action in which the Army participated from Bataan to Okinawa. They made a brilliant record on every fighting front. They proved once more the value of the trained citizen-soldier."



At Arlington, Virginia, the Colors were symbolically returned to the States by President Harry S. Truman on November 11, 1946. As he launched the post - war National Guard into the era of the Cold War, he said, "I return these colors to the National Guard. I hope they will use them to train young men in the interests of peace and in the welfare of the country.

"And," added the onetime captain of artillery of the Missouri National Guard, "I am sure they will do just that."

From 44 federally-recognized individuals enrolled in the National Guard in June, 1946, the membership swelled to 369,489 (including 44,728 in the Air National Guard) at the time of the outbreak of hostilities in Korea, four years later.

Called up in the "partial mobilization" of the Guard for Korea: Approximately one-third of the Army National Guard, about 85% of the Air Guard.

California's 40th Division and Oklahoma's 45th Division were soon on the battle line in Korea. From Arkansas and Texas the 136th Fighter-Bomber Wing was early into the fight. It was not until February 1956, two and a half years after the Armistice that the last National Guard unit called in the emergency was released to State control.

During 1960 both Army and Air National Guard units took part in important training exercises conducted by the active forces. For the Air Guard there was "Operation Bright Star/Pine Cone III," an important tactical air support test. The Tactical Air Force employed was commanded by a New Jersey Air Guardsman, Brigadier General Donald J. Strait. Another major accomplishment was the airlift of a complete Utah Army National Guard Artillery battalion from Hill Air Force Base (Ogden) to Puerto Rico, 3,500 miles. This was in "Operation Big Slam/Puerto Pine," and marked the first airlift of an Army National Guard battalion-size force over a great distance in an Active Army maneuver. The exercise was a 100% success and prompted a Utah newspaperman to write, "We can no longer think of the National Guard as a Monday night sanctuary for . . . (our) . . . young men . . . Different is the fact that they can now board an airplane and be on a foreign shore within hours, equipped and ready to defend freedom . . ."

CAMERON HERALD
VIEW ON SPORTS
— WITH ROBERT MANN —

According to school officials, the Navasota Rattlers will become a part of 19AA high school football district next year. They will be the sixth team of 19AA.

Cameron, A & M Consolidated, Rockdale, Hearne and Caldwell are the other five. Cameron has been a member of 19AA since 1958.

The Navasota gridiron squad has posted a near even won - lost record thus far this season.

VOS

The first game of district play for the Yoemen is exactly thirty -- six hours away, give or take an hour or so.

This first tilt, with Caldwell, should be a fair reflection of how Billy Bates Fighting Yoemen will perform in the after math of conference play.

The Yoemen have dropped from the expert's list as 19AA's district winner. In their place are the Hearne Eagles; a one man team, headed by Simon Martinez. But man, what a difference that one can make.

At present he has completed something like fifty of seventy passes. Last week he showed that he can carry the pigskin with some form also. He scored the Eagles first TD of the night in their 34-6 romp over Rockdale.

VOS

One thing that being a second half ball club proves. The Yoemen are in condition. It will be interesting to watch if their condition stays good. As has been the case in past years, when the boys are in poor shape; the interest and hustle drops. And then the score.

Badgers Take Second District Win For 12 - B

The Badgers of Buckholts tacked on their second District 12-B victory at the expense of the Jonesboro Eagles, 61-0.

Enroute to the victory, the Badgers amassed a total yardage of 309 yards. The ground game of Badgers could not be stopped and Bager runners ate up 288 yards.

Senior halfback Bobby Malovets led the Badgers with his four touchdowns. On TD runs alone Malovets gained a total of 113 yards. Two of his TD's were brilliant runs of 55 and 45 yards.

The Badgers took a 21-0 lead into the dressing room at halftime.

The Badgers kicked to Jonesboro at the beginning of the 1st half. Malovets put his toe into the ball, but the ball hit the Jonesboro center and bounded into Malovet's waiting arms.

On the next play from scrimmage, Jack Ruzicka popped Buddy Inge with a jump pass. Inge lateraled to Morris Jones who galloped 35 yards to paydirt. That was Jones' second TD of the night.

The last quarter was played by the Freshmen and the only Sophomore, Gerald Bales. Gerald plunged for another Badger TD on a 3 yard run.

Lenard Fritz tacked two TD's down for the Badgers on 10 and 1 yard dashes.

The freshmen played fine defensive as well as offensively the last quarter.

19AA District Play Underway Hearne On Top

The local Yoemen had an open date but are scheduled to meet Caldwell here tomorrow night.

The Eagle's ace quarterback, Simon Martinez continued his mastery over the opposition's pass defence. He accounted for two touchdown passes, four extra points and scored the first Eagle TD.

Martinez scored his touchdown in the first period and tossed to Butch Reed for the second TD in the second quarter. Minutes before the first half ended, Robert Neff broke lose for a 55 yard goal post run. Martinez passed to Reed for the two extra tallies.

Frank Vaca and Reed both scored Eagle touchdowns in the second half from two yards out, Martinez tossed to hit Reed again for two extra.

D. McKinnon raced a Rockdale kickoff back 75 yards in the final frame for the last Eagle score.

In other district play, the Caldwell Hornets dumped the Tigers back into their cages in front of a College Station crowd.

The Tigers started the ball rolling early in the first quarter on a sixty - six yard pass play good for six points. The play went from Russell Welch to J. W. Parsons.

Caldwell horned in on the scoring in the second quarter with a pass from Harold Satterwhite to Charles Matejowsky good for thirty - five yards. An extra point kick by Ben Trealek gave the Hornets a 7-6 halftime lead they never relinquished.

The Hornets added their deciding six points in the third period on a two yard plunge to paydirt by Billy Harper.

Welch kept Tiger fans hopes alive on scoring on a fifty - six yard jog in the third frame. This was the last scoring by A & M.

The "Best" Cattle Oiler

(Used Year Round, as Directed. With "BEST" Beef Chemical)

wholesale meat packing, I fully understand an realize the need for successful Cattle Pest Control Repellent.

There are 150 days of grub season ahead. Then comes the fly season and then the tick season. Fly and tick control in pastures and feed lots can mean one - half pound more gain in weight per day per head. Will your animals mill around in brushy places fighting flies or will they be eating grass?

The "BEST" Cattle Oiler
effectively controls grubs, flies, mosquitos, gnats, ticks, and other pests, and it is used in pastures or feed lots eliminates lice

promotes good grooming, general condition and appearance keeps cattle from rubbing down fences, bunks, and and buildings, cattle stay calm, comfortable and happy is more effective than spraying - at one-fourth the cost. Spraying excites cattle, is a disagreeable task -- AND

IS SO UNNCESSARY.

Why lose one to three cents per pound because your animal is not well protected? A "BEST" protected animal will bring top prices at the sale. A "BEST" Oiler and insecticide will protect your cattle for less than one-half cent per pound!

Subject: How Goes Confidence . . .

What is confidence made off?

Why do some people remain poised when the bottom has fallen away, if not out?

We cast around for a lot of reasons why, as most people do, and we can only conclude:

Confidence is a thing made up of sheer drive, based on self reliance and experience in knowing things usually get better after they get worse.

And it involves some sort of faith, based on reason and hope. The latter do not always coincide; truly, they may be incompatible. But when both elements are present, you surely have confidence.

These things apply to communities, nations, all nature of problems as well as to people.

Confidence is based on some elements not always charitable as they happen: mistakes, oversights, down right "goofs". But be assured: if you fear error, you will lack confidence. Those that err are probably doing something. The fabric of their action is the stronger for the miscues. Like rocks in concrete they strengthen the whole. Smooth concrete crumbles. Boulders, shot through with a conglomerate of foreign elements, are very strong.

This could be craggy logic. We cannot justify error because of action alone. There must be competence. But competence in a hurry, quite the case these days, does create problems.

Finally, confidence comes not only from experience, but from inexperience. Plunging headlong into a problem, sometime insoluable for the learned, is often by confidence untested.

There is a balance somewhere, short of the cliche about "nothing succeeds like success" and beyond "experience is the best teacher." One implies that any success is real. The other requires long experience to teach confidence.

But the test of confidence is doing, whether we start with it or end with it. We can be sure there is movement and ultimate achievement.

World Awaits Mr. K's Talk . . .

Mr. Krushchev has announced the ambitions of World Communism in a speech this week. His "Eutopia in 20 years" was the subject.

Prior to his speech before the 22nd Congress of the Communist Party, he announced that Russia would explode a 50-megaton hydrogen bomb and conceded additional time beyond the December 31 deadline for settlement of the Berlin issue.

If ever a diabolic plan to enslave the world was revealed, it was this week.

This nation, slow to anger, quick to cool, has never encountered such a dilemma. Indeed the world has not.

Hiding behind a curtain of illusion and idealistic sleight of hand, Khrushchev has carried Russia to the point that most of the world awaits his pronouncement.

Hydrogen black mail is Khrushchev's major bid. A 50-megaton bomb, equivalent of 50 million tons of TNT, is his long suit. The threat of a 100-megaton bomb has already been announced.

His philosophy of force for peaceful aggression is unparalleled in history. And its attainments are impressive. The cordon at East Berlin, Laos, now South Viet Nam, Cuba, presently British Guiana, the growing neutral bloc, Washington's apparent indecision . . . these are the marks of his notion of progress.

Significant of Soviet power is Russia's Foreign Minister Gromyko's unswerving stand during weeks of talks with President Kennedy and the U. S. State Department. We were able to convince Gromyko we would not surrender Berlin: thus, Krushchev's concession of time there.

But time is in his favor.

This impasse has caused philosophers to inquire into the moral position of starting nuclear war or steadily conceding domination to Communism.

Washington says this stalemate of power will continue for years, keeping the United States and the balance of the world on some sort of brink.

It seems likely this cannot continue for years without conceding those things which cultured humanity cannot concede . . . freedom of decision.

All the practical successes and all the noble thoughts of mankind was summarily twisted and contorted in Khrushchev's speech this week. He will use them in the name of unworkable communism, now synonymous with dictatorship.

And we shall wait with hope that cannot prevail over dictators, with faith that communism does not recognize, with anticipation of greater brinkmanship than John Foster Dulles ever exercised.

Down the road, there is a decision that neither patience nor "firm committment" nor dollar diplomacy can avoid. It is a decision to quash piece by piece, the promises that Mr. Krushchev made this week.

Council Studies Three Subjects

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — Year round colleges, less work for the Attorney General and more realistic election laws could result from studies being undertaken by the Texas Legislative Council.

The Council, the Legislature's research arm, agreed to undertake eleven studies during the coming year. A total of 25 were proposed. List was trimmed down because there just isn't enough time or money to study them all.

Subjects selected for study include:

Election Code Revision.

Space Utilization by Institutions of Higher Education.

Coordination of Health and Welfare Services of the State.

Non - Constitutional Duties of the Attorney General.

Opinion Authority of the Attorney General.

Law Based on Population Classification.

State Hospitals and Special Schools.

Texas Utility Regulations.

Discrimination in Employment Because of Age.

Mentally Ill Children.

Health, Accident and Hospitalization Insurance Claims.

Findings will go to the 1963 session of the Legilature for the lawmakers' consideration.

WATER POLLUTION

Governor Daniel will soon name the members of the new State Water Pollution Control Board. This new agency will operate to some extent as a branch of the State Health Department, in that its executive secretary and only full - tim official will be the Health Department's director of water pollution control.

Many areas of Texas are having water pollution problems, and those who sought help in Austin went to four or five offices without finding much response.

So legislators set up a new agency, but did not give it any operation money. It authorized Governor Daniel and the Health Department to allocate part of their appropriations, if they can spare it, to the new agency.

Daniel will ask this winter's special session of the Legislature to make some improvements in the law and to provide some cash for the agency to begin a real attack on water pollution.

After November 7, no one can discharge any kind of waste into the waters of Texas without a permit from this board.

SALES TAX TIME

Merchants who have been collecting the new state sales tax will make their first payments to the state October 31, covering collections for September.

Payments will then go on a quarterly basis. Collection stores get to keep one per cent. If they make estimates and pay in advance for each quarter, they can take a three per cent discount. Advance payments on the fourth quarter of 1961 will be due by November 15.

Comptroller Bob Calvert issued some more interpretations of the new law. If you pay the sales tax to the state on credit sales, and then charge them off as bad debts, you can deduct the tax on the tax return for the quarter in which you gave up on collecting.

Unless seller keeps books to show clearly what part of a credit sale is for the item, and what part is for interest, carrying charges and insurance, he must collect the tax on the whole price of the sale.

Shirt boards and clothing bags are exempt from the sales tax when bought by a clothing store for selling new goods. But laundires buying the same items would have to pay the sales tax on them.

A bottler would pay the sales tax on soda pop bottles when he buys them from the factory. But when you put up a deposit on returnable bottles at the corner store, there's no sales tax on the bottles.

PAPERBACKS

Students in 110 classrooms in Texas will be using some paperback school books in January.

Legislators, looking for ways to save money, told the State Board of Education to test out paperback school books and report back by 1963 on whether tax money can be saved.

The board will adopt new books at its meeting November 13. It will vote on 27 books recommended by a teachers textbook committee. Protests have been made by Rancher - Writer J. Evetts Haley of Canyon, speaking for the Texans for America organization.

TAX ATTACKED

Three gas pipeline companies brought suit in Austin to try to knock out the new tax on production of gas under dedicated - reserve contracts.

This is merely a token tax, designed to find out whether this new approach to the taxing of natural gas is constitutional. Suit was expected.

Two previous efforts to levy an additional tax on gas have been knocked out by the courts. Rep. Robert C. Eckhardt, Houston, devised this new method and believes it is valid despite some amendments he opposed on the ground that they would weaken the chance of standing up in court.

The Old Philosopher

Philosopher Not Afraid Of Machines Enslaving Man, Says Man Can Do It Alone

Dear editar:

I never have been worried over the chances of machines replacing man, as some people seem to fear as the machines get more and more complicated, especially the big, block - long electronic brain machines. In the first place, any time a machine can take over my job of work I'm doing, it's welcome to it. Nothing about that prospect that scares me.

But I was interested in the reasons a scientist gave the other day on why machines will not replace man.

According to this scientist, machines can't really think, they have to depend on man to put them into operation and to tell them what to add or subtract or multiply. And therefore, he said, to clinch his point, "machines will never out strip and enslave man, they lack reason and cannot do what man endowed with reason can do, namely, screen sense from nonsense and make decisions from inadequate or even incorrect. data."

As I understand this scintist's argument, if you feed a machine the wrong information, it'll come up with the wrong answer, it's only when you feed it the right information that it can come up with a correct answer, whereas if you feed man with the worng information, he'll reason his way out and still come up with the correct answer.

Now, I'll tell you. This scientist may know a whole lot about machines, but I'm afraid he doesn't know a whole lot about people. Two - thirds of the world today is being fed the wrong information and so far the people have reasoned their way through it no better than what you'd expect out of a hand - cranked adding machine.

Invariably, I suppose, when you feed the wrong information to a machine, bells ring and lights flash "tilt" and it comes up with the wrong answer, but feed the wrong information to people and you never know whether they're going to blow a fuse or throw their hats in the air and vote for you. There's many an office - holder today who owes his success to the fact people aren't as apt as machines when it comes to analyzing data.

People are more like my tractor engine. Regardless of what kind of gasoline you pour into it, it won't always plow.

It may be true that machines will never enslave man, but we really don't need a machine for that anyway. Man is managing to o that by himself.

Yours faithfully,

J. A.

Blackland Farmers Report Best Cotton Crops This Year

Progressive conservation farmers in the Blacklands have made their best crop, this year. They are averaging over a bale of cotton; 4000 pounds of grain sorghum; 70 bushels of oats; 40 bushels of wheat and 300 pounds of beef per acre. At the asme time they are improving their soil fertility because of soil depletion, many of their neighbors are harvesting one of their poorest crops.

The record shows a majority of the Blackland farms are being ravaged by erosion.

A ten year (1950 - 59) study of soil and water loss in twenty-five Blackland Counties (Crop Reporting District 4) estimates that some degree of conservation was in effect on only 30 per cent of the land. During the 10 year period, twenty - four rainfall stations averaged 33.42 inches of rainfall. Eleven stream gauge stations in the area averaged 3.87 inches runoff and an average annual soil loss of 8-12 tons per acre. Ten tons of top soil contain about $8.00 worth of plant food.

A recent Soil Test Summary of Blackland and Grand Prairie soils, reported by Dr. William F. Bennett, Soil Chemist in charge of the A & M College Soil Testing Laboratory, shows that 84 per cent of the soils tested are too low in organic matter and nitrogen for maximum yields. The Summary, also, reveals that 86 per cent of the soils tested are too low in phosphorus; 43 per cent too low in potassium, and 24 per cent too low in calcium for maximum yields.

When conservation practices are adequate, there is little runoff from crop and pastureland. The water is stored in the soil for use by crops to increase farm income.

Soil Conservation Districts were setup to help farmers cope with their erosion problem. The District Supervisors solicit the cooperation of other groups and agencies in their effort to assist farmers in carrying out control measures.

We suggest, if you have an erosion problem on your farm, that you take immediate steps to secure aid from your Conservation District.

HOG PROGRAM

Recently passed Federal Legislation authorizes the U. S. Department of Agriculture to undertake a broad Federal - State hog cholera eradication program.

SOUTHWESTERN AREA
(Texas and Oklahoma)

Trading in the spot markets was increasing. Rains slowed harvest operations. The larger percent of the ginnings moved into trade channels. Shippers were more active buyers. Inquiries from domestic mills and foreign sources were not numerous. The Plains crop was opening slowly.

PRICES FOR MIDDLING No. 1 Cotton held steady in the designated markets this week quoted Thursday, October 12, at 33.15 cents in Dallas, Houston a d Lubbock and 33.25 cents in Galveston, unchanged from a week ago. One year ago prices were 29.50 cents in Dallas and Houston, 29.60 cents in Galveston and 29.40 cents in Lubbock. Late last week harvest was again making good progress after the rains of October 2. A cool front moved into the Area this past weekend, causing additional rains which curtailed field operations. By October 6, about 44 percent of the Texas and about 15 per cent of the Oklahoma crop was out of the fields according to a report issued by the United States Department of Agriculture Statistical Reporting Service. In most of the local markets producers offered current ginnings freely with prices at or well above loan levels. In some markets the ginnings continued moving on a physical or hog round basis. Reports indicated most of the ginnings entered trade channels with a good demand for Strict Low Middling and lower White and the Light Spotted grades Shippers were more active and buying increased. Pruchases were largely for early needs but some stock buying was increasing.

Cotton ginned in Texas and Oklahoma through September 30 averaged lower in grade and longer in staple length than that ginned a year ago. Upland ginnings through the same date totaled 1,270,860 bales in Texas and 31,415 blaes in Oklahoma. The Light Spotted grades accounted for 43 percent of the ginnings in Texas and 71 percent in Oklahoma.

Domestic mill demand was very slow. Most activity was on type for the medium and lower grades. Inquiries were few and prices were not attractive. Interest from abroad continued to be slow. Few inquiries were received and offered prices were too low. Foreign interest was mainly for the medium and lowr grades for October and January delivery.

General harvesting in the western sections of the State has been slow. Rains and continued rank growth has lessened the effects of defoliants and many growers are waiting for a freeze. Central and North Texas harvest is well advanced but slowed by recent rains. Western Oklahoma has been ginning rather heavily but recent rains have hampered continuance on a full scale.

Arvell Jungmann, past president, led the installation assisted by other outgoing officers.

Attending the meeting were teh FFA sweetheart, Linda Tucker and sweetheart companions Billy Burke Henrietta Richter, Lanette Laffere and Suzanne Lippman.

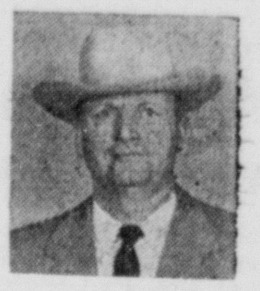
Worm Damage To Oats Told

By J. D. Moore
Milam County Agent

Farmers and stockmen are advised to check small grain and pasture land for the presence of armyworm damage. When armyworm first appear, they skeletonize leaves which causes whiteish patches to appear on the foliage of oats and other small grain crips.



Insecticides should be applied at the first signs of armyworm outbreak. According to C. F. Garner, Extension Entomologist, Malathion and Parathion are recommended for oat pastures to be grazed by dairy animals. However, cattle should be removed for 15 days after application of Parathion and seven days after the use of Malathion.

For oats where range cattle are to be grazed, toxaphene can be used at the rate of 2 lbs. per acre. Safety restrictions call for removal of all livestock for 15 days after application and no dairy cattle or animals being finished for slaughter to graze in toxaphene treated fields.

It is not likely that these pests will appear after the onset of cold weather. Some cases of damage have occured after cool weather was experienced.

Attention hunters. A $3.15 license is required of every Texan between the ages of 17 and 65 who hunts outside his county of residence. A license is required of every Texas citizen hunting deer or turvey anywhere in the State.

STALK DISTRUCTION

Extension Entomologists suggest to cotton producers that they proceed with stalk destruction programs as soon as possible after the harvest is complete. Shredding the stalks and plowing the residue under to a depth of five to six inches is one of the best control measures for pink bollworms and for cutting off the food supply for over - wintering boll weevils. The program, they say, is most effective when carried out on a community or countywide basis.

Mrs. O. G. Chamberlain, president of the Cameron PTA, announced this week the new fund raising project started by the Association.

"Traveling Basket", has been designed to raise money by traveling from house to house and each family contributing an article of their choice such as pie, cake, apron, hot pads, etc and sends it to the next family. That person judges the worth, deposits the money in a box and relays the basket with her own sales item to the next family.

"We are most grateful for your cooperation and will appreciate your consideration," concludes Mrs Chamberlain.

Cadillac

The word for it is... "Masterful!"

"Superb" . . . "luxurious" . . . "beautiful" . . . "brilliant"—there are many words that might be used to describe the new 1962 Cadillac car.

But if we were to select from the Cadillac vocabulary the one word that most completely captures the essence of this latest "car of cars"—we would choose "masterful".

For here is a motor car that has already established its mastery in everything that makes an automobile good and fine and desirable.

In appearance, it is clearly a Cadillac masterpiece—graceful, clean-lined and elegant.

In performance, it is a revelation. Its power plant is a reservoir of silken power—and the car rides and handles with an instinctive ease and sureness.

In safety, it is in a class of its own—with a host of exclusive features, including remarkable new side cornering lights.

In craftsmanship, it is simply without rival. Every 1962 Cadillac will undergo more than 1400 inspections to assure its quality and goodness.

On and on the list could go. But however lengthy, that list could never replace the experience of inspecting the car and driving it.

Your dealer will happily let you do both.

Once you have, you'll understand why the word has gone out so quickly that this is the finest motor car ever to bear the Cadillac name.

LONE STAR GAS COMPANY — THE CAMERON HERALD

Now here—a great new exclusive from Buick

ADVANCED THRUST

Moves power forward for arrow-straight going

It puts the engine ahead like the tip of an arrow • It tames "wind wander" and road sway • It sweeps you forward in a hush of luxury • It turns the floor hump into foot space.

WHAT IT IS—Buick's big new move: It positions the great new Wildcat V-8 and Turbine Drive way up front over Buick's front wheels.

WHAT IT DOES—As the engine went forward, the floor hump went DOWN. And, the forward weight makes wheel response far quicker, cornering far surer, ride far smoother.

WHY YOU'LL LOVE IT—It's the closest you can come to sports car handling in a passenger car. Distances shrink before its ¾-G thrust. Hills disappear. Lean on curves is gone because the frame's gone wider. Winds don't make you wander. It's going at its Buick best!

Most Fire Injuries Can Be Avoided With Concern

Nineteen per cent of the fatalities caused by home accidents are the result of burns, according to C. M. Burke, Lone Star Gas Company Manager.

Lone Star and The Cameron Herald are co - sponsors of the 1961 Home Safety Program in Cameron.

"Forty - eight per cent of the persons who die from burns," Burk said, "are either under five years of age or over 64.

"Almost 100 per cent of the common fire hazards responsible for this terrible toll can be eliminated if the homeowner will allot a mere 10 minutes a day of the family's time to the problem.

"A quiz prepared by the National Board of Fire Underwriters offers a room by room, attic to basement checklist by which the safety of the home can be measured. By using this quiz as a safety blue print and as a training guide, the homeowner will go a long way toward the elimination of home fire hazards. The quiz:

KITCHEN AND DINING ROOM

1. Is the gas or electric range clean -- the broiler, oven and burners free of grease?
2. Have you hung curtains and towels so they won't blow over burners?
3. Are members of the family forbidden to start fires with kerosene and other flammable liquids?
4. Have you made sure that several electrical appliances, such as the toaster, waffle iron and coffee percolator, are noe connected to one outlet?

LIVING ROOM, BEDROOM AND BATH

1. Is there enough space around your television set for proper ventilation?
2. Has a lightning arrestor -- preferably one listed by Underwriters' Laboratories, Inc. -- been installed on the antenna lead-in?
3. Is your television set UL-labeled?
4. Are worn lamp and extension cords immediately replaced with new ones?
5. Have you removed extension cords strung around the room -- under rugs, over nails?
6. If there is a wood - burning fireplace, is it protected by a metal screen?
7. Is the fireplace chimney cleaned and inspected periodically?
8. If a portable heater is in use, is it turned off before you go to bed?
9 .Is the portable heater placed where it cannot be tripped on or overturned?
10. If you use portable gas heaters or appliances, are shut - off valves installed in the metal gas pipeline.
11. Do you make it a rule never to smoke in bed?
12. Have you put the radio or any other electrical appliance out of reach of anyone bathing or clutching a water faucet?

STORAGE SPACE

1. Have you cleaned out accumulated rubbish?
2. Have you thrown out those old clothes, toys and magazines you "hate to part with"?
3. Is your heating equipment clean and in repair? Is it inspected each fall?
4. Are you careful never to store paints, turpentine, rubbish, or kindling near your central furnace?
5. Is the inside basement door at the head of the stairs tightly fitted and kept closed at night?
6. Are all stove pipes and chimneys clean and in good repair?
7. Are walls, ceiling and partitions near boiler, stove, burner and heating pipes protected by non-combustible insulation -- or is adequate clearance provided?

GARAGE AND YARD

1. Have you cleaned the garage floor of oil drippings?
2. If the garage is attached to your house, is the door between always kept tightly closed?
3. If you store paint and varnish in the garage, are containers always kept tightly closed?
4. Have all combustible rubbish, leaves and debris been removed from the garage and yard?
5. Is trash and refuse burned in a suitable outdoor rubbish burner?
6. Is an adult always present when trash and rubbish is being burned out of doors?
7. Have weeds, dried leaves and rubbish been removed from adjoining vacant lots.

OTHER PRECAUTIONS

1. Are ash trays kept handy -- and are they always used?
2. Do you keep matches out of children's reach?
3. Do you put out all matches, cigarettes and cigar butts before disposing of them?
4. Do you hire a competent electrician to repair or extend electrical wiring when necessary.
5. Do all rooms have enough outlets so as to avoid improper use of multiple attachment plugs?
6. Have you provided special circuits for heavy duty appliances such as washing machines?
7. Do you use fuses of proper amperage for your household lighting circuits?
8. If you use an oil mop, do you keep it in a metal container or in a cool, safe, well - ventilated place where it will not catch fire by spontaneous ignition?
9. Have you forbidden your family to use gasoline, benzine or other similar flammable fluids for cleaning clothing and floors?

NEW TELEPHONE DIRECTORY

I hope that all of you have received your new directories by now. If you didn't get yours, call our business office, telephone OX 7-4601, and we will see that one is sent.

This year the book is white in color with brown ink to distinguish it from last year's grey book, and contains sixteen pages of alphabetical listings. There are twenty-eight pages of classified listings and advertisements listing the products or service Cameron business telephone customers have to offer. You can find it fast in the "Yellow Pages", an easy convenient way to shop. Try it, won't you, you'll be glad you did.

Approximately 3,395 copies of the directory have been printed for distribution to present and future subscribers.

DO YOU REMEMBER . . .

The first live cross-country telecast in 1951 was relayed by a transcontinental microwave relay system to 94 television stations in 52 cities. It showed President Truman opening the Japanese Peace Treaty Conference in San Francisco.

That first year, the Bell System's transcontinental network offered a single television pathway and 100 voice circuits. Today, 12 coast-to-coast TV circuits are provided by the Bell System to 500 stations in 300 cities via microwave and coaxial cable. Of the nation's 93,000 miles of television circuits, 13,200 miles span Southwestern Bell territory.

TO EACH HER OWN PRINCESS

You'll be hearing that phrase quite a bit this month (perhaps you've already heard it or read it in telephone company ads.) What does it mean to you.

Well, if you're a member of the fair sex, it can mean the added convenience, security and peace-of-mind you enjoy with a Princess telephone next to your bed. Or it can mean less wear and tear on you if the Princess phone is near at hand during the day. If you're a teenage princess, a Princess phone in your room can mean a special kind of privacy when you talk with your very special friends.

If you're not a member of the fair sex, "To Each Her Own Princess" is a timely reminder that can make you a hero with the ladies in your home. All you have to do is surprise the lady with a Princess phone of her own. Just call the telephone business office and we'll see that she gets it installed where it pleases her most . . . and in the color she likes best.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

Rogers Schedules CROP Program

ROGERS — The Rev. Wayne Murph, pastor of the First Methodist, has been appointed general chairman of the annual CROP Program for the Rogers larger community, and the big night is Halloween, October 31. The Methodist, the First Baptist and the Rogers Christian churches have already indicated their interest in cooperating in the program, just as they did in 1960. Many youth of junior high school age or older are expected to take part in the program.

CROP (Christian Rural Overseas Program) is the Community Food appeal of Church World Service. It serves as a food collection agency for 33 Protestant and Orthodox denominations. It serves many other Protestant denominations who may not be organically a part of CWS here in the United States, but who take part in the distribution in many countries overseas.

An example of how this help is given overseas, is the Congo situation. In the Congo, when the Protestant missionaries saw that they were going to have to do something about relief, they formed the Protestant Relief Committee and bcame the distributor of CROP in the Congo. In July, 1961 CROP shipped acarload of wheat from Texas for relief in East Pakistan.

Others on the committee in Rogers are the Rev. Bud Malmstrom, and Rev. Clyde Lee Herring.

Texas sportsmen should remember that new hunting and fishing licenses will be required beginning September 1. The resident hunting fee is $3.15; fishing licenses cost $2.15.

Only ELECTRICITY PROVIDES Flameless COOKING

Cook the modern way . . . the clean-and-cool way . . . with flameless electricity. With no flame, there's no smudge and no soot . . . pots and pans stay bright . . . walls, cabinets and curtains stay fresh. The insulated oven of your electric range lets you maintain exact cooking temperatures. Quick-action surface units make direct contact with utensils so heat goes into foods and not into the air. See your dealer soon and let him demonstrate the modern way of cooking . . . with flameless electricity.
